Pricing and quotation

- All of the four bundles have already pre-selected the E36150ADVU upgrade option. The E36150ADVU price is separate from the bundle price and will be summed into the total price. Therefore, E36150ADVU price needs to be added into the bundle top model price (see Figure 1, 2 and 3).
- For the good value bundles E36154AGV and E36155AGV, a discount price of $150 or around up to 3.5% is already structured into the bundles top model pricings (see Figure 1).
- For the better value bundles E36154ABV and E36155ABV, a discount price of $500 or around up to 10% is already structured into the bundles top model pricings. Please follow Step 3 to choose a BenchVue Advance Software license type that fits your measurement application. A selection of a license type for either BV9200B or BV9201B is mandatory for the better value bundles and the price will be rolled up into the total price (see Figure 2).

- For any additional selection of the available options in Step 4 and available services and support options in Step 5, the prices are individually listed and will be summed into the final price (see Figure 3).
